The function began with our national anthem and then humanity of covid warriors were addressed. The covid helpers & warriors were honoured and a prayer was held for them. Their momentum was covered by Governor Shri Bhagat Singh Koshiyari. A short A.V. was played showing their contribution at the difficult times of pandemic. Magistrate Vijay Prakash was honoured followed by other warriors, Prithviraj Chavan honoured. Dr. Vèdati was honoured for her valuable contribution of distributing medicines at the time of pandemic. The special award ceremony was held for students who completed education despite of their parents' death. Also HSC, SSC and engineering students were addressed and honoured too. Especially abled students who have scored good marks were also honoured during the ceremony. The Governor was asked to give a special speech. He addressed the humanity and compassion present in our country. The people had forgotten caste, religion, party and helped others in their difficult times. Everyone handled the hardships very well be it police, doctor or government officials did their best to keep the country safe and sound during the pandemic. The vaccination drive was also successfully followed. Lastly, he said I Pray to Dear God, this deadly disease shall never occur again and if it comes, we shall overcome it together. Vote of thanks was given by the Satish Sir. He thanked all the Elderly and respectful officials present there & once more national anthem was sung by everyone & the event ended on a delighted note.

This is the day which taught NSS Volunteer the importance of the Covid warriors.
