

1. ADMISSION POLICY (APPLICABLE TO ALL UG ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES)

XIE offers the following Engineering Degree Courses of four year duration leading to the Bachelor of Technology. The degree is offered by the University of Mumbai. The details of the courses & their intake capacity are given in the table:

Computer Engineering	120 seats
Computer Science and Engineering (Internet of Things and Cyber Security Including Block chain Technology)	120 seats
Information Technology	60 seats
Electronics & Computer Engineering	60 seats

1.1 ADMISSION PROCESS AND THE ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA.

The First year Engineering admission process shall have the following three categories, as per the rules and regulations of the MH-CET Cell Maharashtra and the colleges affiliated to University of Mumbai, they are:

1.1.1 Students applying for admission through Centralized Allotment Process (CAP) of The State Common Entrance Test Cell (MH-CET Cell):

Students shall apply for admission to the State Common Entrance Test Cell (MH- CET Cell), on-line as per their Cell's notification in the leading news papers and their website. The eligibility criteria for admission are as specified in the Information Brochure issued by the MH-CET Cell for that particular academic year. Normally the Academic Year starts from June-July of every year and ends in the next year of May-June. MH-CET Cell shall release the document i.e., the information brochure and the rules and regulation hand book in the month of April-May every year. This process is referred as online admission.

1.1.2 Students applying for admission to Institute Level Quota seats:

Students seeking admission to XIE directly at the Institute will have to make an application in the prescribed format of XIE, against the advertisements released in the leading newspapers published by the Institute XIE. The starting date and the ending date of filling up of the application form and submitting them along with the required documents at the College General Office shall be specified in the newspaper. The advertisement for admission to the 1st/2nd year of the Institute Level Quota seats shall appear in the leading newspapers in May-June, every year. This process is also referred as off-line admission.
