

December 2020

Monthly Insights

Activities

Prof. Sulochana Devi participated in a six-day AICTE Sponsored Short Term Training Programme (STTP) on “Cyber Security and Blockchain Technology” from 23-28 November 2020.

Prof. Chhaya Narvekar presented a paper titled, “Flower classification using CNN and transfer learning in CNN-Agriculture Perspective” at the 3rd International Conference on Intelligent Sustainable Systems (ICISS2020) organized by SCAD Institute of Technology, Palladam, India on 03-05 December 2020.

Prof. Jyotsna More participated and successfully completed AICTE Training and Learning (ATAL) Academy’s online FDP on “Cloud Technology” conducted at Gandhi Institute of Technology and Management from 16-20 November 2020.

Prof. Jyotsna More organized a guest lecture for the students of SEIT on the topic, “Industry Trends in DBMS” on 05 December 2020 at 2:00 pm via Google Meet. The resource person, Mr. Mayur Jain, a database engineer in Just dial enlightened the students on the subject.

Prof. Chhaya Narvekar presented a paper titled, “Fairness Assessment of Question Paper Using Artificial Intelligent Techniques” for track-Education Technology at IEEE Bombay Section Signature Conference-2020 held virtually on 04-06 December 2020.

Placement

Two students, Naimesh Bhatt and Shivang Medhekar, from the batch of 2020 have been placed with Pelican with a package of 3 LPA.

Activities

Prof. Amit Narote and Prof. Smita Pawar, the class teachers of the final year IT and EXTC classes respectively, organized an orientation session to help the students with the selection of the Institute Level Elective subject for Semester VIII. The session was held on 21.

December 2020 at 4:10 pm via Google meet. Prof. Suvarna Aranja gave insights on the subject of Human Resource Management, Prof. Martina Rodrigues spoke about Project management and Prof. Salil Thigale acquainted the students with Environmental Management. The session was a big help to the students in opting for the elective subject.

