Hello Naveen Sir,

Thanks for the call last week to clarify on the certificate,

While there has been a confusion for which I am responsible, I will go ahead giving a Linux completion certificate from EBTS only if the candidate withdraws from the program after a week. The objective of the program is to have students enrol for the complete course.

Following conditions which is a fair view point is expected from students to get a Linux completion certificate from EBTS.

1. 100% attendance
2. Submission of assignment

Please communicate to the students accordingly. We want students to learn and get maximum benefit from the experiential workshop.

Google meet

Department:

(everyone from BE)

The presentation and talk by Byjus began at 2:30pm sharp. The speaker first gave a short introduction about himself and introduced the topics he was going to cover during the talk.

He explained about the industry and corporate practices and how only academic curriculum is not sufficient for students to land a high package job. He further explained what general students lacked to get them their dream job and satisfaction. Some case studies of Tesla motors, Google and amazon were also presented and thus the technology that is currently being used in the industry was explained.

The speaker explained the need of industrial projects and how to complete them. Finally, the structure of Career labs tutorial classes was clearly laid down and the offer to join them and gain a guaranteed job was given on a First-come

First-serve basis to only 10 students. Basically, the first 10 students who would join them would be trained in their choice of field, given industry level projects, gain internship experience and finally land a guaranteed high package job through career labs. The session ended with a short video about achievements by Byjus and Career Labs.

Student Feedback and Benefits:

Upon joining a course with Career labs the students were guaranteed a high package job.

The crucial question, however, about the restorationist outlook has to do with the degree to which the restorationist program is itself faithful to the first principle of restoration: that nature and humanity are fundamentally united rather than separate. Rejecting the old domination model, which sees humans as over nature, restoration theory champions a model of community participation. Yet some of the descriptions that
