Women's Day was celebrated in Xavier Institute of Engineering by the Women's Development Cell. The celebration was held on 8th March,2023 in seminar hall from 3:30 pm onwards. An award ceremony was held on this day in which WDC felicitated the female students with the awards which included John and Frank Trocki Women theme Poetry Award.

The Women's Day Poetry Competition garnered an overwhelming response, attracting participants of varying ages and writing experience. The competition was open to all female students, providing a platform to express their thoughts and emotions. We received a total of 14 entries, reflecting the enthusiasm and passion of the participants.

The competition employed a fair and transparent judging process. A panel of esteemed judges was selected to evaluate the entries. The judges were Prof. Saniya Gonsalves and Prof. Manali Tayade . The judging criteria included creativity, coherence of form and structure, Originality, Clarity of imagery and language. The poetry pieces were submitted to Prof.

The winner of the theme Poetry award was Miss. Nanditha Ramesh from FE Computer Engineering. The winner was felicitated by the convener Prof. Teena Varma with a certificate and the the award price money of Rs.500.
