No of participants: 66

The webinar was about knowing the career opportunities where Mr. Neil Savant (CEO and Founder of NUOS) answered the questions and cleared the various doubts students had come up with. This was planned for all the students of XIE during the period of lockdown to engage and motivate the students.

The students were asked to register on an online link/form in which was shared by Prof. Jyotsna More. 66 students registered for the webinar. Webinar was conducted using the Zoom application. At the beginning of the session, Fr. (Dr.) John Rose, Director of XIE, and Prof. Chhaya Narvekar, motivated the students to make use of the opportunity to solve their doubts. Then, the faculty coordinator Prof. Jyotsna More introduced the students to Mr. Neil Savant. Later on, he gave the students a brief overview about the session. He told the students about the trends in industry related to IOT and gave an overall in-depth knowledge of what is entrepreneurship and what are its pros and cons.

Later on, the session was open to students as well and they came up with their doubts and question which were solved by Mr. Neil very effectively. The session was quite informative for the students.

On behalf of XIE, Prof Jyotsna More express the gratitude to Mr. Neil Savant for guiding the students in the webinar session.

Student Feedback and Benefits

Students found the session informative and knowledgeable and are interested for more sessions on career selection topic. Their questions were answered in a very efficient manner by Mr. Neil Savant.
